

CALOUSTE
GULBENKIAN FOUNDATION

Belonging

Premiere

Manifesta and the Runnymede Trust are pleased to invite you to the Premiere Screening of a series of short videos made by young people from Newham, as part of BELONGING – a transnational learning and creative initiative.

Saturday, 11 October 2008 at 15.30
Stratford Circus
Theatre Square, Stratford
E15 1BX

BELONGING engages teenagers aged 15 to 19 from London, Paris and Lisbon neighbourhoods in a vibrant collaboration leading to the production of a series of personal short films from the three locations.

BELONGING is devised and led by Manifesta in partnership with the Runnymede Trust. It is supported by the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation, the Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) and the Portuguese Public Service Broadcaster RTP. The London workshop was produced in collaboration with the Forest Gate City Learning Centre and Newceys/Newham Young People Online project (NYPO)

RSVP – please email info@runnymedetrust.org by Friday 10 October to confirm your place.

newceys

