

BOROUGH PROFILE

Lambeth

In 2011 Lambeth had the highest overall inequality in London and was ranked 1st (out of 32 London boroughs). In 2001 it was ranked 3rd, indicating that gaps between ethnic minorities and White British people have remained relatively large. The Black African, Bangladeshi and Mixed groups experience the largest overall inequality. Lambeth is one of the few boroughs in which minorities experience inequality in all four of the indicators.
